Constitution and By-Laws of the Catholic Alumni Club of Washington, D.C.

PREAMBLE

We, the Catholic Alumni Club of Washington, D.C., realizing the need for a stronger and more effective Catholic singles community, conscious of the obligations our faith and education have placed upon us, and determined to promote Christian principles and ideals in our community, do hereby adopt this Constitution and By-Laws.

ARTICLE I — NAME

Section 1. The name of the organization is the Catholic Alumni Club of Washington, D.C., Inc., hereafter referred to as the “Club.”

Section 2. The Club, as a Catholic organization, is subject to the authority of the Archbishop of Washington, D.C. The chaplain of the Club shall be approved by the Archbishop and serve the spiritual needs of Club members.

ARTICLE II — PURPOSE

The Club is an organization of single Catholic professionals whose express purpose is to permit single men and women who are free to marry in the Church to meet in a Catholic environment. The Club shall:

- (1) Enable members to experience a sense of community by sharing their common faith, values, and educational background;
- (2) Provide a forum for members to pursue their intellectual, social, and cultural interests;
- (3) Provide members with an opportunity to express their faith and Christian ideals; and
- (4) Promote personal growth by participating in religious, charitable, and community activities.

ARTICLE III — MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in this Club shall be restricted to those persons at least 21 years of age who:

- (2) Are single and free to marry in the Catholic Church.
- (3) Are graduates of a four-year accredited college or two-year community college program, or equivalency in education and/or experience.

Section 2. Meeting the eligibility requirements does not automatically entitle the applicant to membership. The Membership Chair shall review each application and make a recommendation at the next meeting of the Executive Board. The recommendation of the Membership Chair for each application shall be approved or disapproved by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

Section 3. An applicant shall present a signed application and payment of annual dues prior to approval by the Executive Board. Dues are nonrefundable if the Executive Board approves membership.

Section 4. An applicant whose membership is disapproved by the Executive Board may appeal that decision, along with an advocate, to the Executive Officers in a special closed session, after which the Executive Officers will vote whether to recommend the applicant for membership to the Executive Board. A tie vote by the Executive Officers means that a recommendation for membership is denied.

Section 5. A member shall be dropped from membership upon ceasing to be eligible under Section 1.

Section 6. A member of another CAC club who wishes to transfer membership to the Washington, D.C. Club may do so after providing a record of membership from the originating club. The applicant must meet the Washington, D.C. Club's membership requirements.

ARTICLE IV — OFFICERS

Section 1. The elected officers shall be the President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. All officers shall be members. The term of office shall be one year, from January 1 through December 31. Any person who

Section 6. The Treasurer shall collect, receive, and have custody of all funds and securities of the Club, and deposit these monies in the Club's name in an insured account(s) at such financial institution(s) as designated by the Executive Board. Section 9. A vacancy may be declared in any elected office by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board, including those not present, if that officer is absent from three consecutive monthly Board Meetings. The Board must notify the officer in writing of the intended action before the vote.

Section 10. An Executive Officer may be removed for cause prior to the expiration of the officer's term in one of two ways:

- (1) The vote of two-thirds of the entire Executive Board, including those not present at the vote. A written statement of the charge shall be furnished to the officer at least 30 days prior to the meeting at which the vote is taken. The officer shall be given the opportunity to appear before the Executive Board and address the charge.

Section 3. The Immediate Past President serves in an advisory capacity to the Executive Board. Additional duties may be assigned as needed by the President. If the Immediate Past President does not wish, or is no longer able or eligible, to serve in this capacity, the President may appoint a member, preferably, but not limited to, the next eligible Past President, to serve as the Immediate Past President, with all the voting privileges granted to the Immediate Past President. This appointment must be approved by a majority of the Executive Board.

Section 4. The Chaplain shall act as advisor to the Executive Board, and may be present at Executive Board meetings.

ARTICLE VI— COMMITTEES

Section 1. The Standing Committees shall consist of Religious, Membership, Newsletter, and Internet. As described in Article V above, the Chairperson of the Standing Committees shall be voting members of the Executive Board. The full charge of each committee, and the responsibilities of each committee chair, can be found in the Board Policy Manual. In addition to the specific Standing Committees named above, there may be up to five Directors-at-Large who may be appointed by the President and shall be voting members of the Executive Board.

Section 2. Two additional types of committees that meet Club needs and interests may be formed and called Recognized Committees, or Ad Hoc Committees. A Recognized Committee is formed with the approval of a majority vote by the Executive Board. Each Recognized Committee shall select a chairman to serve for one year. An Ad Hoc Committee can be formed only by the President.

- Section 3. The President shall appoint, from time to time, select committees to serve specific purposes.
- Section 4. All committees shall plan, direct, carry out, and be responsible for their respective activities, under the general supervision of the Executive Board. All committees shall report to the Executive Board.
- Section 5. All Standing Committee Chairpersons and Directors-at-Large shall be appointed/removed by the President with consultation of representatives of the respective committees and the board, and be subject to approval and removal by a majority of the elected officers.
- Section 6. No Club member, including elected officers, may hold more than one Standing Committee chair. Elected officers and Standing Committee chairs may not serve as Directors-at-Large.
- Section 7. The Standing Committee Chairperson(s) may appoint only Club members (as defined in Article III) to their respective committees. If the Standing Committee Chairperson should resign, the members of the committee are still considered to be part of the committee unless they, too, announce their intention to resign. The members of the Standing Committee may suggest a replacement chair to the President, who has the authority to appoint a replacement (Article VI, Section 5).
- Section 8. A Special Disciplinary Committee shall be formed by resolution of the Executive Board to investigate charges of misconduct against a member of the Club and recommend disciplinary action, including probation, suspension, or expulsion. This committee shall be appointed by the President and shall consist of five persons: a representative of the Membership Committee; a member of the Executive Board; and three at-large members of the Club. This Committee shall serve no longer than 60 days unless extended by the Executive Board. If this Committee recommends disciplinary action, the President shall call a special meeting of the Executive Board to occur within 30 days of the Committee's written recommendation to conduct a hearing on the probation, suspension, or expulsion of the member. The member shall be given an opportunity to be heard before the Executive Board. Any disciplinary action must be approved by a three-fourths vote of the entire Executive Board, including those not present at the vote. The notice for this special meeting is outlined in Article VII, Section 14. This special meeting shall not be by remote technology.

ARTICLE VII — MEETINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1. There shall be regularly scheduled monthly meetings of the Executive Board. These meetings shall be open to the membership. The President or the Executive Board shall notify each member, in writing, of the time and place for each monthly meeting. Generally, this is done by an announcement in the newsletter. Although in-person meetings are desirable, at the discretion of the President, any or all members of the Executive Board may participate in meetings by remote technology, including casting votes, provided such participation has been approved beforehand by the President. Persons using remote technology to participate in a meeting shall be deemed “present at the meeting.” The meeting may take place at a physical location as advertised in the newsletter. Alternately, the meeting may be by conference call, with no specific physical meeting place, in which case the membership shall be notified by email no later than two hours before the scheduled meeting time. Disciplinary proceedings by the board under Article VI Section 8 shall not be conducted by remote technology.

It may be desirable to make decisions between regularly scheduled board meetings. Email may be used to inform all voting members of the Board about the question(s) to be voted on, and to receive the resulting vote(s).

Section 2. All elected officers, the Immediate Past President, chairpersons of Standing Committees, and Directors-at-Large shall have one equal vote in determining policies, financial issues, and general interests of the Club. All decisions are to be made by majority vote, except as otherwise provided in the Constitution and By-Laws. In the event of a tie vote, a proposal shall be defeated.

Section 3. The quorum for any meeting shall consist of a majority of the Executive Board. In the absence of a quorum, all items of Club business not requiring a vote can be transacted, but no votes can be taken on motions moved and seconded.

Section 4. The number of eligible votes (Article VII, Section 3) is defined as the number of Executive Officers, plus the number of filled Standing Committee Chairpersons plus the number of filled Directors at Large positions (Article VI, Section 1), minus the number of open officer positions, minus one vote for each additional position held by one person (unless a proxy has been appointed). A quorum is this number of eligible votes divided by two. The resulting number is increased to the next whole number. Note: No one person can hold more than one vote regardless of how many potential voting positions they may hold (Article VII, Section 8).

Example 1

Executive Officers: 6

Filled Standing Committee Chairpersons: 4

Filled Directors-At-Large: 2

Persons holding 2 voting positions (VP and Membership): 1 (-1)

Total Eligible Votes: 11 Divided by 2: 5.5

Increased to the next whole number: 6

Example 2

Executive Officers: 6

Filled Standing Committee Chairpersons: 4

Directors-at-Large: 3

Person holding two voting positions (VP and Membership): 1 (-1)

Total Eligible Votes: 12 Divided by 2: 6

Section 5. An Executive Officer cannot assign his/her vote to a proxy in the event he/she cannot attend a meeting of the Executive Board.

Section 6. An Executive Officer who also serves as a chairperson of a Standing Committee may assign his/her Standing Committee vote to a proxy, provided that the proxy also serves on that Standing Committee. If the Standing Committee has no other members, the Executive Officer shall cast a vote as an Executive Officer, and the number of total votes of the Executive Board shall be reduced by one.

Section 7. A Standing Committee chairperson or Director at large may assign his/her vote to a proxy in the event he/she cannot attend a meeting of the Executive Board; however, this vote may be assigned only to a Club member who also serves on that Standing committee or serves in a role assigned to that Director at large. The assignment of a proxy must be made in writing prior to the meeting.

Section 8. Proxies should be recognized at the onset of the meeting of the Executive Board and recorded in the minutes. No Executive Officer, Director at Large, or Standing Committee representative may have more than one vote, whether by proxy or otherwise.

Section 9. Executive Officers, Standing Committee Chairpersons, Directors-at-Large, and proxies as defined in Section 7 must be present at the meeting of the Executive Board to vote.

Section 10. A vote may be taken by secret ballot if a motion to do so is approved by a majority of the Executive Board.

Section 11. The Presiding Officer may not present a motion. Nonvoting members, including members of Recognized Committees and the general membership, can present motions if recognized by the Presiding Officer. However, only members of the Executive Board can second a motion.

Section 12. An agenda will be distributed by the Secretary to all members of the Executive Board. The agenda will contain items for business submitted by any member of the Executive Board or a member of the Club.

Section 13. The minutes of Executive Board meetings (with the exception of disciplinary proceedings) shall be made available to any member of the Club upon request. The Secretary shall distribute copies of the minutes to all members of the Executive Board prior to the following Monthly meeting of the Executive Board.

Section 14. There shall be special meetings of the Executive Board to discuss specific issues as the President or a majority of the Executive Board may designate. When such a meeting is called, the Secretary shall contact all Board members by email, phone, or other appropriate technology giving the details of the time, place, or use of remote technology, and purpose of the special meeting.

Section 1. There shall be at least one annual meeting of the membership and it shall be held in the Washington, DC metropolitan area in early January, immediately prior to the January Board Meeting, or at such other time as the Executive Board may designate. The time and place of the annual membership meeting shall be published in the newsletter. The members attending the meeting shall constitute a quorum for that meeting. The order of business at the annual meeting shall be:

- (1) Annual Reports of Officers
- (2) Reports of the Committee Chairpersons

- (4) New Business

Section 2. Special meetings of the membership can be called by the Executive Board, or by a petition signed by five percent of the membership and presented to the Executive Board. Proper notice shall be given to the members for any special meeting. The business of such meetings, to the extent feasible, shall be published whenever possible in the newsletter. The meeting shall be run in accordance with Roberts Rules of Order, Revised with the President of the Club acting as Chair of the meeting. The members attending the meeting shall constitute a quorum for that meeting.

Section 2. Proposals shall be voted upon by members by either a mail (electronic or postal) ballot or at a Special Meeting of the Membership, as determined by the Executive Board, after the proposal has been published in the newsletter or mailed to all members. Any member who was a member on the day the proposal is submitted to a vote shall be eligible to vote. A majority of those voting shall carry the proposal.

ARTICLE X — ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The nominations for officers of the Club shall be made by any of the following methods:

However, a Nominating Committee member can fill a vacancy for an elective office under the procedures outlined in Article IV, Section 7.

Section 4. The Nominating Committee shall secure acceptance of the nominations from each of the nominees before they are announced to the membership.

Section 5. The Nominating Committee shall publish for the membership a final listing of all candidates running for office. The list announced on or before October 10 will suffice, unless additional nominations are received by two days before the November board meeting, as described in Section 2 above.  - i. the elected officers may appoint someone to fill the position of President, or
 - ii. the succession of officers in Article IV Section 7 will apply.

Section 6. No candidate shall receive Club funds for the purpose of campaigning for office in the election. Candidates for office may submit appropriate biographical and other information to the Newsletter.

Section 7. The ballot shall also contain voting instructions, including time and manner for submitting ballots. The Membership Committee shall provide a mailing list of eligible voters to the Nominations Committee. The Nominations Committee shall mail, via the U.S. Postal Service, the ballots no later than 15 days prior to the date ballots are counted.

Section 8. Voting privileges shall be extended to those who have been approved as members as of the conclusion of the November meeting of the Executive Board.

Section 10. When a membership vote is needed due to multiple candidates for any office, voting shall be by secret ballot. All mailed ballots must be received no later than a date specified by the Nominating Committee and printed on the ballot. Ballots must be cast via the U.S. Postal Service or brought to the designated counting site (or other collection site(s) identified in the newsletter) and submitted before ballot counting begins. Ballots will be accepted at the counting site for at least one hour; once ballot counting begins, no more ballots will be accepted. Only ballots designated as “official” by the Executive Board shall be accepted.

Section 11. The Nominations Committee shall count the votes. Any candidate may appoint a representative to monitor the counting of ballots.

Section 12. Candidates for the positions of President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary shall be elected by a plurality vote. In the case of a further tie vote, a candidate shall be elected by majority of the other elected officers prior to the commencement of their term of office.

Section 13. Any candidate may protest the election results in writing to the Executive Board no later than 48 hours after the election. If no protest has been lodged, the Nominations Committee shall retain custody of the ballots for seven days following the election, and then destroy them, unless otherwise directed by the President. The number of votes cast for each candidate shall become part of the Club’s records.
